

Conference Announcement:

PAVING THE WAY FOR A NEW DAY FOR TRANSITION AGED YOUTH AND YOUNG ADULTS IN OHIO'S MENTAL HEALTH SYSTEM

June 12, 2007
Quest Business Center
Columbus Ohio

Join us for an exciting conference designed to raise awareness and build excitement for bridging the gaps for transition aged youth and young adults served by Ohio's mental health system. During the day, we will:

- Review promising practices in transition aged youth mental health services from a national perspective
- Learn from a national expert Maryann Davis, Ph.D., University of Massachusetts, Medical School
- Find out about Ohio's services and policy efforts in this area
- Experience "Transition" from the perspectives of the experts
- Network with others who are interested in transition aged youth services and polices

When:

- 9am-4pm
- June 12th 2007

Where:

- Polaris (Quest Center)
- Directions: <http://www.osupsma.com/Assets/Quest%20Directions%20&%20Map.doc>

Who:

- Anyone with interest in what our transition aged youth and young adults in Ohio need to succeed. This will be a venue for networking with others across the state on this issue.
- Registration is limited to 80 -100 people. At least 40 of the registration slots are saved for youth, young adults, and family members.
